

Privacy Policy

Your privacy is important to the Renaissance Community Loan Fund (Renaissance), and maintaining your trust and confidence is one of our highest priorities. We respect your right to keep your personal information confidential and understand your desire to avoid unwanted solicitations. We hope that by taking a few minutes to read this policy, you will have a better understanding of what we do with the information you provide us and how we keep it private and secure.

Renaissance collects certain personal information about you because it is necessary for us to use that information when preparing forms and communicating with the various agencies as a part of the Project Reinvest: Homeownership Program.

Examples of sources from which we collect information include:

- Application information, interviews and phone calls with you;
- Letters or e-mails from you; and
- Other questionnaires completed during the Program.

As a general rule, we do not disclose personal information about our clients or former clients to anyone. However, to the extent permitted by law certain non-public information about you may be disclosed to our partners, affiliates, agents, contractors and their respective assigns as necessary for final determination of your eligibility for and the amount of assistance under the Program.

Renaissance protects all of its clients' confidential information. We use commercially reasonable safeguards on our computer system to prevent unauthorized access of confidential information. Although security cannot be guaranteed, we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with applicable professional standards.